KatO 20th Anniversary:
Create, Participate,
Celebrate, Anticipate

We hope you are packing your KatO 20th Anniversary T-shirt for summer vacation! Nothing like having it seen across the country and around the world. We had an incredible celebration of the Fourth of July! Marketing liked the cohort banners so much it asked that they stay up for an extra week. We'll have them up again for the Anniversary, hopefully with some additions by the staff. Meanwhile "The History of Kendal at Oberlin" is off to be printed and the Kendal photo exhibit in the Friends Gallery will be going up mid-month. It is a great visual look back over the past 20+ years. Don't forget to get those punch recipes submitted for the celebration of the book release in September.

And hold these dates:

September 12 - "The History of Kendal at Oberlin" book release.

September 15 - Punch after Brunch, Anniversary Punch Reception, 1:00 to 2:30pm, Heiser Lounge with copies of book available for residents.

September 19 - Third Thursday Lecture: "The History of Kendal at Oberlin," by Richard Baznik in Heiser Auditorium.

September 21 - Anniversary Musical Review, led by Carol Longsworth and Helen Taylor.

October 4 - Founders Reception and Anniversary Dinner with keynote address by Oberlin College President Marvin Krislov to honor Kendal at Oberlin's Founding Staff and Residents.

October 5 - Anniversary Symposium at Oberlin College: "The Future of Affordable Health Care in an Aging Population."

October 12 - Don Parker's Anniversary Play.

Preliminary Version of On-Line Kendal Calendar of Events

During the first week of August, look on the KORA web site for a preliminary version of an on-line Kendal at Oberlin calendar of events.

Go to kaores.kendal.org, then click the new "calendar" box. This is a work in process, and what you see initially will concentrate on regular and recurring events only. The KORA web site committee is working on adding more information about special and one-time events.

Please direct comments and suggestions to Dick Baznik.

Share Great Fellowship, Music, Ice Cream at the CommUnity Ice Cream Social on Thursday, August 15

Kendal at Oberlin's CommUnity Ice Cream Social, our annual outreach event to our friends and neighbors, will be held on Thursday, August 15, from 6:00 to 8:00pm.

Once again, the event will take place at the corner of Maple and North Pleasant Sts. Pleasant St. will be blocked off by the city to provide a safe setting. "Mud in Yer Eye" will be returning to provide delightful music. Join us for an evening of fellowship with our friends and neighbors (including Kendal priority list members) over an ice cream treat.

The Kendal bus will shuttle residents to the Social, leaving the Heiser entrance beginning at 6:00pm. Please be patient -- the bus will continue to circuit until the Social ends at 8:00pm. If it rains, the Social will be moved to the Heiser Auditorium. We hope to see you all at the upcoming ice cream social.

KNOW YOUR KORA COUNCIL

Last month's column illustrated the workings of one Standing Committee (Communications) and its several subcommittees.

From time to time, needs or opportunities come to KORA Council that aren't addressed by any of our 87 committees in their ongoing efforts, leading to the creation of an ad hoc committee or group. Four such groups are now engaged:

For several months, you've been reading about and taking part in activities arranged by the 20th Anniversary Committee, co-chaired by Donna Baznik and Bob Longworth. As reported on p. 1, in addition to special events building to a climax in early October, many of our ongoing committees are linking their own efforts to the anniversary theme.

In April, KORA and Kendal at Oberlin co-sponsored a visit and presentation by Dennis McCullough, the primary creator of the Slow Medicine approach to medical care for the elderly. Led by our Ad Hoc Slow Medicine Committee, during May and June more than 120 residents took part in dinner table conversations about the implications of Slow Medicine for KatO and its residents. A summary is available from co-chairs Ruth Miller and Ardith Hayes. Continuing conversations are leading to new understanding by residents and our families of ways we can support one another in understanding and addressing health care needs as we age. On a parallel track, new staffing patterns in Stephens Care Center and the Wellness Clinic promise more continuity in health care for KatO residents -- as shared in superb staff presentations at the July 23 Quarterly Health Care Forum.

After a discussion at May's KORA Council meeting, we named an Ad Hoc KORA Committee to Explore a Capital Campaign, "probably focused on the Community Center improvements." The minutes noted "cautions and reservations expressed by the residents." Some of those expressing such concerns are members of the Committee. After three meetings, the Committee has begun to draft a proposal largely focused on dedicated space for RAF activities and contributions to the Resident Assistance Fund plus, perhaps, a new fund for entrance assistance. A proposal would also probably include opportunity for contributions designated to other Community improvements: Fitness area; Woodshop/Art Center renovation; and a new Horticultural space. A complete proposal, for consideration by all residents and KORA Council before proceeding, must await more accurate estimates of costs for these improvements.

KORA Officers have convened an informal Ad Hoc Space Committee to explore guidelines for use of the Hobby/Craft room spaces, including storage, partly with a view toward a desire for hobby space by newer residents. Finally, please note, in Barbara Thomas's adjoining column, the request for suggestions to KORA by August 30 of names of residents who might be willing to serve on Kendal at Oberlin's Board of Directors. A more detailed announcement, with instructions, is posted on the KORA Bulletin Board. Please take a copy from a file on the Library table. -Don Reeves, KORA President

New Opening for Resident Board Member

The Board of Directors is now seeking 10 to 20 nominations from KORA for a new resident board member who will serve a three-year term beginning January 2014. As of the end of 2013, Bill Rice will have capably served his maximum number of terms allowed by the bylaws.

Our bylaws allow up to 20% of the board to be filled by residents. A resident's board service is for a three-year term, with the possibility of one additional three-year term.

In seeking candidates, please consider gender balance and service on other Quaker boards and experience in: business, finance, marketing, and engineering. But perhaps most of all, we are seeking a board member who can effectively work with the current board and management to keep Kendal at Oberlin healthy.

If you are interested or know someone who is, please notify the KORA Council within the next month, so that it can submit its nominees by the end of August.

In September, many of the nominees will be interviewed by the board's Governance Committee. At the November board meeting, the candidate(s) recommended by the Governance Committee will be voted on by the whole board. -Barbara Thomas

A Look Ahead at 2014 Budget Meetings

We have started to plan the 2014 Budget meetings with the following dates:

September 6 – Budget Forum with Residents, 1:30 to 3:30pm in the Heiser Auditorium;

October 11 – Budget Update with Residents, 10:00 to 11:30am in the Heiser Auditorium;

November 25 – Final Budget Update with Residents, 4:00pm in the Heiser Auditorium. -Ann O'Malley

LECTURES

First Thursday Health Lecture
No Health Lecture on August 1.

Third Thursday Lecture

No Third Thursday Lecture on August 15.

Play Readers: "4000 Miles" Sat., Aug. 10 - 7:15pm - AUD

After losing his best friend while on a cross-country biking trip, 21-year-old hippie Leo seeks solace from his feisty 91-year-old Communist grandmother in her Greenwich Village apartment. Amy Herzog's play looks at how these two outsiders find their way in today's world. Time magazine called it the #1 play of 2012. Ms. Herzog wrote "After the Revolution," which was presented by Play Readers in January 2013.

NOTE: Residents are invited to attend the final rehearsal of this play on Friday, August 9 at 1:30pm in Heiser Auditorium

On Saturday, August 10, please be seated no later than 7:15pm. After that, there will be no admittance to the Auditorium until the first scene break. -Jerry Berner

Nominations Sought for KORA Council

KORA Council consists of 11 councilors and four officers. It is the responsibility of the Nominating Committee to prepare a slate of people to fill available positions. To start this process we ask residents to suggest to us people whom you feel would well represent you as councilors and/or officers. We recommend that these residents should have lived at Kendal for at least one year. Your suggestions should be submitted to Box #37 in writing before August 15. Please get the consent of the person whom you are suggesting while indicating to him/her that your suggestion does not guarantee that he/she will be on the committee's recommended slate. There are more well-qualified persons than places available. From this pool of names, the Committee nominates a slate of candidates, which is presented at the Annual Meeting in November for ratification by consensus. KORA's Constitution provides for nominations from the floor, in which case the election would be decided by ballot.

Kendal 2013 Directory Additions and Corrections

Jocelyn Maurushat - Check with Front Desk for her new cell number.

Sunday Movies in Whittier Lounge at 7:00pm

Aug. 4 - Paris When It Sizzles (1964) - Secretary (Audrey Hepburn) helps a Hollywood screenwriter (William Holden) overcome his writer's block by acting out his fantasies of possible plots so he can finish his script.

Aug. 11 - 42 (2012) - In 1947, Branch Rickey (Harrison Ford) signed Jackie Robinson (Chadwick Boseman) to the Brooklyn Dodgers, breaking Major League Baseball's infamous color line. Facing blatant racism from every side, even his own team, Robinson was forced to demonstrate tremendous courage and restraint. PG-13

Aug. 18 - Promised Land (2012) - The ace corporate salesman (Matt Damon) for an energy company that specializes in fracking arrives in a small Pennsylvania town to obtain drilling rights from the economically distressed local residents. Film explores America at the crossroads where big business and the strength of small-town community converge. R.

Aug. 25 - The Wizard of Oz (1939) - Dorothy (Judy Garland) and her dog Toto are swept away by a Kansas tornado to a magical land. With three new friends, they embark on a quest to see the Wizard who can help them return home to Kansas. G.

Saturday Night Movie August 17 - 7:15pm - AUD

The Dead (1987) - Legendary director John Huston brings to life the magic of James Joyce with this film, starring his daughter Anjelica. It takes place in early 20th century Dublin at a lively holiday feast. Gretta and Gabriel, a young couple, seem to share a comfortable life. But after the celebration, a familiar voice recalls poignant memories and Gabriel learns of his wife's forgotten love. PG.

Kendal's Art Gallery News

On August 12, this summer's Kendal Collects, now hanging in all three of our galleries, will come down.

Kendal Gallery - The prints of Charlie Harper, a local "wild life" artist, will be on display until September 15 and will be followed by the paintings of Cleveland artist Rita Schuenemann until early November.

Friend's Gallery - "Kendal at Oberlin through the Years," an exhibit of historical photographs, will go up on August 13. This show will stay there until mid-October, giving all of us plenty of opportunities to spend time appreciating these fascinating depictions of the initial planning, organization and construction of KatO, and the subsequent vibrant life of our extraordinary community, as it has unfolded during the past 20 years.

Community Gallery - The paintings of Lee Hefner will be shown from August 15 through the end of September. Then, in celebration of Kendal's 20th anniversary, a display of both the fronts and backs of Eureka! covers will coordinate with the historical pictures of Kendal in Friends Gallery. In addition to celebrating Kendal's 20th anniversary, we are also celebrating the 10th anniversary of Eureka!

Fox and Fell - The AMAM show of student art rentals will come down on September 9. The paintings and prints in Kendal's collection previously displayed there will be returned to their familiar places. -Nina Love, Joe Luciano, Marilyn Myerson and Robert Taylor.

Saturday Foreign Film August 3 - 7:15pm -AUD

Departures (2009) - This powerful and moving Japanese film won the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film. Cellist Diago Kobayashi loses his position when his orchestra in Tokyo is disbanded. He goes home with his bride to find a job. Mistakenly he applies as an apprentice "Nokanshi," one who performs the ceremony preparing the dead for burial. Treating the dead with absolute reverence and grace, he embarks on a spiritual journey of his own. The film is gentle and life-affirming with many funny moments. English subtitles. PG-13

Have You Tried the New Kendal Ride Share Plan?

The Transportation Committee is asking Kendal residents to help get the Ride Share Plan off the ground by participating in their efforts to provide transportation for Kendal's nondrivers.

- If you drive and are willing to give another resident a ride, please post a blue Ride Offer card on the Ride Share bulletin board opposite the mailboxes with details of your impending trip.
- If you don't drive and are looking for a ride, please post a yellow Ride Request card on the Ride Share bulletin board, listing where and when you'd like to go. Help us get this plan going!

Saturday Opera-Themed Movie - August 31 - 7:15 pm - AUD Opera-themed movies will be shown during the summer months.

The Music Teacher (1988) - This French film stars Belgian baritone Jose van Dam as retired opera singer Joachim Dallayrac who retreats to the countryside to teach two young singers. Although the rigorous training takes its toll on both teacher and students, there is plenty of time for relationships to develop among the three. The film was nominated for the Academy Award for Best Foreign Language Film.

Heed the 18-inch Rule!

The National Fire Prevention Assn. mandates that there be 18 in. of free space between the top of any obstruction and ceiling sprinklers. During his visit to Kendal at Oberlin just after our Spring Fling, the Ohio Fire Marshal inspected storage areas and resident rooms in the Stephens Care Center and instructed that material stored on upper shelves be removed. When he visited the Auditorium, he stated the location of the imaginative tangle of nets and fishes near the ceiling sprinklers was violating the 18-in. rule as the decorations would interfere with sprinkler function in the event of a fire. A quick on-line search through legal literature cites inconsistencies in interpreting where the 18-in. rule applies, but the Fire Marshal does have the discretion to make such findings. I suppose that he was looking at all Kendal rooms as connected to a nursing facility -- which does require higher standards of compliance.

Until further clarification is obtained, it would be well to note this prohibition, especially when we plan special decorations throughout the public spaces at Kendal.

The Oberlin Project Summer Film Series: Carbon Nation Thurs., Aug. 22 - 7:15pm - AUD

The Kendal Environmental Concerns Committee, the League of Women Voters of the Oberlin Area and the Sierra Club are co-sponsoring a series of environmental documentaries with The Oberlin Project.

The second in this series is a feature-length documentary about climate change solutions. It tells what people are already doing, what we as a nation could be doing and what the world needs to do to prevent (or slow down) the impending climate crisis.

A representative from the Sierra Club will be on hand to lead a discussion after the screening.

July 2013 Kendal at Oberlin Board Notes

• Our New Chair - During Ed Miller's first meeting as Chair, he spoke of his intent to lead the meeting by being attentive to Quaker Principles, including careful listening, encouraging participation, respecting all opinions and being open to alternatives. He asked board members to feel free to attend other committee meetings on which they do not serve for increased knowledge.

• Board Approvals - Kendal's Board reviewed the policy for recruiting resident board members since there will be an opening in 2014 for a three-year term. They also approved an Inter-affiliate Agreement to prorate costs for the self-insurance program for staff of Kendal at Oberlin, Kendal at Home and Senior Independence. This agreement is being reviewed by all the boards for implementation. The Board also approved the Investment Policy Guidelines which allow for a minimum of 5% of socially responsible funds. The new funding level actually is now 35% of socially responsible funds. The Board received an update on the Master Plan which continues to seek the most favorable contractor arrangement that will stay within our financing resources without compromising design preferences.

• Generative Discussion - The Board focused on learning more about Kendal at Home, which has celebrated its 10th anniversary since it was created by Kendal at (Continued on p. 9)

Welcome Kendal's New Residents

Carla and Robert VanDale

Carla: Born and raised in Canonsburg, PA (Perry Como's home town), I went just 20 miles into Pittsburgh for my RN from Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in 1960. Further schooling came later after marriage and children -- BS degree in Nursing from Penn State, and MEd in counseling from Westminster College.

I met Bob when he appeared as an intern at our church. Discovering that we were both attending school in Pittsburgh, he was quite willing to "save [my] parents the trip" and drive me back on Sunday evenings.

Still students, we married in 1959, and the adventure began! After our graduations, we moved to eastern Ohio, where Bob pastored two rural churches. In between nursing work, I learned how to bake bread from one of my favorite farm wives. This would hold me in good stead for days ahead in Africa -- baking bread on a wood stove, while living in the outlying provinces. Ethiopia was our home for six years -- with three-plus years in Iowa City for Bob's PhD interposed. Our two wonderful daughters consumed much of my day while we lived in Addis Ababa, and everywhere we located I always used my nursing skills. My most rewarding clinical work was with lepers in a rehab center.

Since our return to the United States, we spent most of 40 years in New Wilmington, PA, where Bob was on the faculty at Westminster College. In addition to church involvements, I moved from childbirth educator into children/family counseling, and lastly to parish nursing ... combining nursing and counseling.

One of the many reasons we were attracted to Kendal was to live closer to our daughters in Lakewood and Tiffin, OH. Grandson events now fill our lives. I love to read, design cards, garden, practice yoga, walk in the woods, and cook.

Carla

Robert: I was born and raised in West Allis, WI, earned degrees from Lawrence College and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. Carla and I were married in 1959.

In 1962 Carla agreed to undertake another adventure: two years as volunteers in the outlying areas of Ethiopia, where I served as a builder, maintenance man and teacher. The University of Iowa granted me a PhD in religion in 1968. During our three years in Iowa City, daughter Laura joined the family.

From 1968 to 1972 we lived in Ethiopia again, where I taught full time in the history department at Haile Selassie I University, developed joint projects with the Ethiopian Orthodox Church, coordinated ecumenical programs and service projects. Theater and music also claimed some time. Daughter Heather joined the family in 1970.

Fall 1972, I divided my time teaching at Pittsburgh Seminary and Westminster College. The visiting status at Westminster turned into a tenured position. I served on design teams for several new programs, coordinated the Honors Program, chaired the Department of Religion and Philosophy, and developed the Peace Center.

Beyond the academic sphere, I served on some state and national boards, participated in and coordinated many Interfaith Conversations, and co-coordinated international learning-service projects. After the events of 9/11, Carla and I and our Muslim and Jewish partners in Interfaith Conversations were particularly active. In 2002, the Presbyterian Church (USA) initiated the Listening Project that brought to the United States international teams of Muslims and Christians to tell to Americans their stories of interfaith cooperation in their home countries. I served as moderator for public forums in Pittsburgh and Youngstown.

In retirement I continue my main hobbies of "fixing things" and wood-working. I also try to remain involved in peace and justice activities and in projects under Habitat for Humanity and the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance program.

Recent Moves

Dennis and Judy Cook moved from Laurel, MD, to a Kendal Cottage in mid-July.

An Invitation to Residents from the Suggestions and Concerns Committee

At our meetings with Barbara Thomas, or through other KORA Committees, residents bring many suggestions and concerns. However, on some issues you may prefer to have more privacy and, in a less public setting, have the opportunity to discuss an issue in greater depth. At our monthly meeting in July, a resident stopped by to suggest that the numbers on the open mailboxes were too small for people with limited sight to read. He offered to replace them with labels with a larger font size and a plan was made. The job of the committee is to address such questions and it welcomes the opportunity to do so. We meet on the second Monday of the month at 2:00pm in the Whittier Lounge and would welcome your comments.

Share Your Recipe for an Anniversary Special Punch

Punch after Brunch? Yes!! On September 15 when we sample special punch recipes, one of which will be served at our gala 20th Anniversary reception in October. BUT, we need YOUR recipe for your favorite punch.

So, PLEASE, submit your recipe for punch to be served at our 20th Anniversary reception in October. Address it to Greg Zehe, Director of Hospitality Services, and put it in the Administration open mail box.

The top three recipes, chosen by our Dining Services for taste and simplicity to prepare and serve in large amounts, will be offered on Sunday, September 15 at a Special Punch Reception from 1:00 to 2:30pm. You will also be serenaded by our Kendal Trio while you pick up your copy of "The History of Kendal at Oberlin," by Richard Baznik. And the people's choice winner, named Kendal's Anniversary Punch I, will be served at our gala 20th Anniversary reception on Friday, October 4.

A Note from the House Committee

It is pouring rain and you are at Heiser without an umbrella or even a newspaper to cover your head. Even worse, you just had your hair done! No need to worry because two umbrellas are now hanging on hooks in the main entrance to Heiser. Take one and when you come back on a sunny day, return the umbrella to the hook in the main entrance.

The House Committee is looking for suggestions on displays for the bookshelves in Heiser Lounge. Got any? If you do, place a note in Harol's open mailbox or send her an email.

Guidelines for Using Kendal's Channel 19 Services

Channel 19 TV offers daily updates of all activities and events taking place on the Kendal at Oberlin campus. Unless official Kendal transportation is available, nothing occurring in the town or at the college is publicized. The exceptions are the weekly Park Walks which specify car-pooling.

To serve you better, the following guidelines are suggested:

- All requests for an announcement should be placed in the Channel 19 open mailbox adjacent to the Heiser Reception Desk.
- Events with an early registration deadline are announced four days before the deadline and on the day the registration closes, a total of five days. After this, an announcement is shown three days prior to the actual event and on the day the event takes place, a total of four days. Let us know if there is a preregistration deadline. By limiting the viewing days we avoid making a particular day's presentation too long to watch conveniently.
- Regular weekly events are limited to less exposure (e.g., Jazz Listening, Stretch and Strength, Quaker Worship).
- For those who prepare their own slides for us to scan, we suggest that all lettering be in black and in nothing less than Arial #36 font. Colored letters are difficult, if not impossible, for the sight-impaired to read.
- Thanks to Jim Pugsley, we now have an email address: nkaoch19@gmail.com. The password is kendalch19. This is not for submitting announcement requests. It is only for last minute corrections and for comments and suggestions.
- Please submit your requests at least 12 days before the event you wish to announce takes place. When late requests are received just prior to or after our seven Channel 19 operators are assigned their individual schedules for each day of the week, there is likely to be confusion in our workroom and some disappointed Kendal residents.

Our goal is to offer the best possible service to all Kendal residents.

Thank you for tuning in to Channel 19.

-Milton Ellis, Channel 19

Solution to Kryptogram #101: "Good judgment comes from experience and a lot of that comes from bad judgment." -Will Rogers

Report from Sports and Recreation

Thanks to initiatives by Sports Committee co-chair Dan Reiber, Kendal has seen an upsurge in outdoor activities. After a colorful prelude by kite bearers in the July 4 parade, about a dozen onlookers enjoyed 30 min. of kite flying entertainment. Likewise on July 4, some 35 spectators observed three radio-controlled sailboats sailing on Triangle Pond, with a half-dozen happily taking turns at the controls. Meanwhile, several residents have begun sailing our four newly acquired battery charged sailboats on Triangle Pond, which now features a 10 ft stone wharf for launching and docking the boats, along with four race markers. Also, a novice sailing group may be emerging. Residents who showed interest in radio-controlled sailing during the July 4 celebration have been invited to become charter members of Triangle Pond Yacht Club.

After Dan and Ben Lenz reworked the wickets, Nancy Beauchamp and Dan set up the croquet course, distributed tournament notices, and posted a sign-up sheet at the Activities counter. This year's tournament will run til August 31. Despite the summer heat and humidity, Kendal tennis devotees keep turning out for fun and exercise on our well-maintained, unusually fine courts. Give it a try! And indoors, table tennis thrives on in our air-cooled auditorium. -Sidney Rosenfeld

Time to Sign up for the Shuffleboard Tourney

It's time to find a partner and sign up for the 2013 Shuffleboard Tourney! Please sign up by August 28. You'll find the signup sheet below the Activities Bulletin Board.

Schedule of team play will be posted and placed in your mail box on or before August 31. Play will begin on September 2 and conclude at the end of September (depending on the number of participants).

No previous experience is necessary. You may practice anytime the courts are open with the equipment which is stored in the north stairwell, first floor, of the apartment building. Courts are in the covered walkway next to the apartment parking lot. Call Don or Joyce Parker for any questions or help. This is a great game for all ages and abilities; the emphasis is on fun!

RAFF ShopTalk

Where you find Reasonably Assessed Finery and Furnishings

Since I became chair of R>A>F on July 1, 2012, I have been keenly focused on the wonderful team of volunteers and the myriad tasks they perform daily. I am aware that several are dealing with new issues in their lives and can no longer give to the same degree on a daily basis as they have for so many years. It's time to add new persons to the roster of R>A>F volunteers.

Yes, this means YOU. Anyone who steps up to the plate can anticipate:

- A bit of conversation about your interests, talents, time -- the things that attract you to be part of a team.
- Learning about the ten basic tasks of R>A>F, any one or two of which could be your point of connection.
- Deciding whether working with R>A>F is a good fit for you. If it doesn't seem like a good fit after a period of time, there is no shame in saying so and landing in another part of our community.

So, please talk with me. I am in the directory and in many places on the campus daily.

Receipts for the month of June 2012 were $1,513.25. Having completed a special apartment sale in early July, we anticipate that July receipts will be much stronger. -Ruth Ann Clark, RAF Chair

July 2013 Board ... (Cont'd from p. 5)

Oberlin. Its focus is on three strategic themes: Solidify and Strengthen (Membership and Philanthropy); Innovate, Promote and Grow; and Bottle the Magic by sharing its success of Care Coordination. It has almost 180 members who come from nine counties in Ohio from age 58 to 102. None has made a permanent transfer to a nursing home or assisted living. Most members are in the Platinum Program. All but one of the original start-up loans have been repaid. -Barbara Thomas

Notes From Ann Pilisy

Several of our Dining Services staff will take part in the Lorain County Fair, August 19-25.

Tuesday, August 20: free Seniors admission from 7:30am-3:00pm.

Shelby Balint: "I'll show my miniature horse Cinnamon in Open Class Pony Barn. I have owned Cinnamon for 10 years and trained her myself. I will be competing in Showmanship, Halter, Color, Pretty Face, and more. I also help the Fair Board run shows." Elizabeth Bowman: "My family and I show our ponies in Open Classes in Halter and Hitches."

Meghan Bremke: "I am on Junior Fair Board and help with the Junior Fair shows, and with cleanup after the Fair. I am entering a quilt and wood-working project to be judged. I was Junior Fair Queen in 2012."

Becky Myers: "I will show chickens and turkeys, and have several crop and shop projects that will be judged."

Michaela Price: "I am on Junior Fair Board, I help get the Fair ready, run the shows, and clean up after the Fair. I show sheep and feeder calves. I am Sheep Department Chair, and will show sheep at the Ohio State Fair."

Jordan Penkava: "I show hogs, grow vegetables, and create scrapbooking projects to be judged."
