

2015 Annual Report of KORA Committees and Subcommittees,
Service, Special Interest and Support Groups

Name of Group: Creative Arts Studio Committee

2015 Chair(s): Don Parker

Chair since what year: (2012)

2016 Chair(s): Joyce Parker

1. Current mission statement:

The purpose of the Creative Arts Studio is to provide space for projects that benefit the Kendal at Oberlin community's creative endeavors through a variety of visual art media.

2. Changes to mission statement? _Yes or XXX No Please indicate changes as necessary

3. Summary of activities and accomplishments:

Pottery making and decorating - 11 workshops to date; two Watercolor Workshops (8 weeks each); Pencil Sketching workshop (5 weeks); Open Studio weekly with leadership for special projects in many; Spring Fling decoration making (6 weeks); plein air painting and drawing (3 sessions); short-term projects (picture framing, collage, paper maché masks, polymer clay figures)

4. Problems? Needs?

None currently

5. Plans for 2016 and future:

Continue to develop programs and opportunities for groups and individuals to pursue their chosen area of art and finding leadership to provide programs for beginning artists and those curious to try something new

6. Committee members: List with special assignment as needed

Joyce and Don Parker, Vicki Shafermann