1. Current mission statement:

- To provide a website run for and by Kendal at Oberlin's residents, the main portions of which are publicly accessible without password or other restrictions on access.
- To maintain the website in a manner that provides helpful and accurate information for users, relying primarily on other residents as sources of this information.
- To develop internal web-enabled services that respond to the needs and interests of other KORA-related activities within the committee's financial and technological resources.

2. Changes to mission statement? Yes or No Please indicate changes as necessary All new.

3. Summary of activities and accomplishments:

- Develop a database of past Eureka! issues accessible to residents and others. Page is developed and data entry has begun.
- Develop a database for use by the Art Committee. Design and initial implementation completed. Data system is developed and input is under way.
- Develop a "Kendal AtoZ" or "FAQs" page with useful information for residents, especially new arrivals. Concept defined and partially populated. Editing under way.
- Identify back-up for the webmaster. New committee vice chair is positioned to do this.
- Develop database of KORA records and working documents. Concept suggested to KORA leaders, but still under consideration.
- Continued maintenance of calendar. On-going.
- Development of a web-based ride-sharing service. Planning under way.
- Early thinking about database for a Kendal arboretum. On-going.
